Josh and Christine,
"Your Name" has helped us greatly with our finances.
Even if you have someone you already work with we'd recommend meeting with him for an introduction. The process he uses is very different relative to what you see in the financial world at large, and it actually makes sense.

Call us if you wish,
Jon and Amy

Jerry and Kim,
"Your Name" has been great to work with. The financial process they use and their "begin with the end in mind" approach is unique and makes everything clear. I'd recommend sitting down with him for an introduction.

Call me if you wish,
Dave
